

Our Implementation Methodology

Complete Solutions for J.D. Edwards Success!

AMX International is a Proven Solution

Another unique aspect about our implementation methodology is that includes attention to change management - the human aspects of dealing with an ERP implementation. We work closely with you to determine the organizational impact that your implementation will have and develop a strategy to address those issues.

Our customers place an increased importance on cost effective, reliable and lasting solutions for their information system needs. By following a proven methodology, providing comprehensive implementations services and utilizing consultants experienced in information systems, AMX International will continue to be the J.D. Edwards business partner of choice.
